

December 2021 League Report

ADVOCACY

Affiliation season is here and the advocacy team has a simple way to meet your 2022 PAC goals! Simply check the box on your LSCU dues invoice under "Additional Cooperative Activities" for your state PAC goal based on asset size and membership. The Advocacy Team will take it from there, or you may also send a corporate check. Please contact Blake Westbrook (AL & GA) or Murphy Kennedy (FL) for assistance. Thank you for your contribution and continued commitment to LSCU Advocacy.

During the month of November, Alabama credit unions hosted NCUA Vice Chairman Kyle Hauptman to discuss FinTech, cryptocurrency, and other ways the NCUA can support our credit unions. Additionally, filming was completed for the "Making Sense: Foundations of Financial Success" taskforce, which will likely launch in February. The League was tasked with educating adult and K-12 learners on how to responsibly build credit. These videos, which will be turned into 10-20 hours of learning time, will be made available to employers and schools to promote financial literacy. Legislation to formalize the coalition is expected during the 2022 session.

Georgia's special redistricting session convened November 3rd and adjourned November 22nd. The Senate passed HB 1EX, giving final passage to Georgia's state legislative district map, followed by SB 2EX, the Georgia Congressional Redistricting Act, receiving final passage and proposes Georgia's new congressional district map. Most notably, SB 2EX redraws GA-6, currently held by Rep. McBath, from a district President Biden won by 12% to one that former President Trump won by 15%.

In Florida, committee weeks continue in full swing as legislative priorities take shape. House Banking and Insurance is focused on Florida's property insurance market, once again looking for solutions to historic rate increases. Additionally, every 10 years the legislature must reapportion Florida's population into new Legislative and Congressional districts. Notably, Florida will be gaining one congressional seat due to growth as compared to other states, bringing the Delegation to 30.

While credit unions and their members successfully worked to kill the proposed IRS reporting requirement in the House with more than 800,000 congressional contacts made, the Build Back Better Reconciliation bill now moves to the Senate, where discussions to include the provision continue. As this provision is incredibly intrusive to consumers and grants unwarranted access to the IRS, credit union members are encouraged to continue expressing opposition to this provision to their senators.
